

Health – Social Responsibility

Medical care & Help for 10 adopted villages

Ten villages adopted in Rajasthan, India with a dedicated nurse in each village and a common doctor providing medical help to over 200 patients every day. The target is to adopt 50 such villages.

Organizing free health and medical camps in rural areas on regular basis.